Each essay is worth 30% of the paper mark: Al Liss Wal Kilab

أو

a/ Candidates should give an account of how Said Mahran behaved and what happened to him after his release from prison. The Sheikh said he didn't really come out of prison because he felt Said was still a prisoner of his character and surroundings. His negative behaviour, blaming others and feelings for revenge were signs that he could not change himself.

himself. b/ Candidates are expected to give the positive and negative sides to her character type/kind, sincere and caring but with some questionable morals due to her work. Despite this, she represents an element of hope for Said. She is also the only one that seems to really care for him. If he had listened to her, he could have begun a new life instead of the one he chose. He may also have helped her move away from her type of life and thus had a more productive purpose in life.

Mr T Cherkaoui	